

First, you will need to install the battery, you will need to slide the tray release and then pull the battery tray outward, insert the battery so that it sits flush in the battery tray.

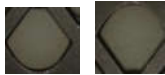

Press the reading light button on the sauna control panel, the white light will come on. Then you can press any of the colors buttons on the remote to change the color.

Press this button to turn on/off the colorful reading light.

Press these two buttons to adjust the brightness of light.

Press these two buttons to adjust the color of light.